CME, CNE, and ASRT Evaluation/Certificate

PICS Society Symposium 2026 continuing education evaluations will be done online this year. After the conclusion of the meeting you will receive an email. To qualify for credit, you must complete a program evaluation. Once you complete this survey, you will receive your certificate of participation immediately after the evaluation of the program.

After successful completion of the online evaluation, you will receive a certificate of participation for a maximum of 23.75 CME or CNE credits, or 29.5 ASRT Category A credits. A certificate will be provided via email.

CME Accreditation

In support of improving patient care, this activity has been planned and implemented by RUSH University Medical Center and The PICS Society. RUSH University Medical Center is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

For Medicine:

RUSH University Medical Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 23.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM. Physicians should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the learner to earn credit toward the CME of the American Board of Surgery's Continuous Certification program. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit learner completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABS credit.

For Nursing:

RUSH University Medical Center designates this knowledge-based live activity for a maximum of 23.75 nursing contact hour(s).

ASRT: This activity has been approved for 29.5 ASRT Category A Credits.

Please visit the PICS registration desk at the start of the conference to pick up your ASRT attendance folder.

A complete list of faculty conflict of interest statements are available for viewing at the Registration Desk.
